Dear Member

RE: SCOTTISH OPHTHALMOLOGICAL CLUB CENTENARY MEETING 8-9 SEPTEMBER 2011

As you may be aware, 2011 is the centenary of the inaugural meeting of the Scottish Ophthalmological Club. To celebrate this 100th anniversary, the council are organising a special centennial meeting which will include historical displays marking 100 years' progress in Ophthalmology and lectures by guest speakers. This will be held over two days at the Edinburgh International Conference Centre followed by a dinner at the Caledonian Hotel in Edinburgh.

In order to make this a success the centenary committee are looking for

- photographs of old hospitals, wards, theatres, medical/nursing/orthoptic/optometric staff.
- any digital information
- anything to do with the Norway or Iceland trips
- the 100th meeting
- SOGS meetings

We would also welcome your views on who you feel should be invited to this meeting and any specific areas that should be covered.

If you feel you could assist, please could you forward any items etc to myself or Alison Simpson at the address below contact us via email on c.j.macewen@dundee.ac.uk or alisonsimpson2@nhs.net
All items will be returned thereafter.

Further information regarding this meeting will be available on the website – www.s-o-c.org.uk

Thank you all for your assistance.

Yours sincerely

Carrie MacEwen
